

COA-Z: DIA DE COLORES

Organization Fair General Guidelines

August 3-7, 2026 | C-Garden, Clobby, Paseo de Maria, and BC Quadrangle

1. GENERAL PROVISION

1.1. The Event

The COA-Z: DIA DE COLORES (Organization Fair) 2026 shall serve as the official recruitment period for all recognized and accredited student organizations of the Ateneo de Zamboanga University for Academic Year 2026–2027.

The event aims to provide organizations with a platform to promote their missions, advocacies, programs, and opportunities for involvement while encouraging members of the Ateneo Community to actively participate in student life through meaningful organizational engagement.

Unlike ORGHUNT, which serves as an information and organizational showcase during Orientation Seminar, the DIA DE COLORES 2026 shall formally open the recruitment period for accredited student organizations.

1.2. Objectives

The DIA DE COLORES aims to:

- a. Introduce accredited student organizations and their advocacies to the Ateneo Community.
- b. Encourage students to participate in co-curricular and extracurricular activities by joining organizations.
- c. Provide organizations with an avenue to recruit prospective members in accordance with University policies.
- d. Promote student leadership, collaboration, and service grounded in Ignatian values.
- e. Foster a vibrant campus culture that celebrates the diversity and interconnectedness of student organizations.

1.3. Venue and Schedule

1.3.1. The DIA DE COLORES shall be held from August 3 to 7, 2026. Booth displays shall be available only from August 3 to 6 at the designated venue. Recruitment activities shall be conducted from August 3 to 7, with the final day (August 7) held exclusively online.

1.3.2. The event venue shall be at the C-Garden, Clobby, Paseo de Maria, and BC Quadrangle. However, the final venue may be adjusted depending on the number of participating organizations and logistical considerations.

1.3.3. The final venue assignment and event schedule shall be communicated to participating organizations prior to the event.

2. PARTICIPATION GUIDELINES

2.1. Eligibility

2.1.1. Participation in the COA-Z: DIA DE COLORES 2026 shall be open to all newly recognized and accredited student organizations of the Ateneo de Zamboanga University for the Academic Year 2026-2027.

2.1.2. Only organizations that have successfully completed the re-accreditation process shall be eligible to participate in the DIA DE COLORES 2026.

2.2. Booth Allocation

2.2.1. Booth spaces shall be assigned based on the designated venue layout and the available spaces determined by the organizers.

2.2.2. Organizations shall be grouped and assigned booth spaces according to their respective organizational clusters, as determined by the Organizing Committee, to facilitate accessibility and organization throughout the event.

2.2.3. Only organizations that have successfully completed the re-accreditation process and have been officially recognized for Academic Year 2026–2027 shall be eligible to receive a booth space during the DIA DE COLORES.

2.2.4. Booth assignments made by the organizers shall be final.

2.3. Booth Inclusions and Logistics

2.3.1. Each participating organization shall be provided with one (1) designated booth space during the DIA DE COLORES 2026.

2.3.2. Subject to venue availability and logistical considerations, the Organizers shall provide:

- One (1) table to be shared by two (2) participating organizations.

2.3.3. Organizations requiring additional equipment, furniture, or special setup arrangements shall provide their own materials and must coordinate with the Organizers in advance.

2.3.4. Organizations are encouraged to bring their own tents and tables.

2.3.5. Participating organizations shall be responsible for bringing their own promotional materials, display items, extension cords, decorations, and other booth necessities.

2.3.6. Booth setup shall commence only during the designated setup period announced by the Organizers.

2.3.7. Booth dismantling shall begin only after the official conclusion of the event or upon the instruction of the Organizing Committee.

2.3.8. Organizations shall ensure that their booth setup does not obstruct walkways, emergency exits, neighboring booths, or designated event spaces.

2.3.9. Participating organizations shall maintain the cleanliness and orderliness of their assigned booth area before, during, and after the event.

3. BOOTH OPERATIONS

3.1. Organizational Showcase

3.1.1. Participating organizations may decorate their assigned booth and display materials that accurately represent their identity, advocacy, projects, and activities.

3.1.2. Organizations are encouraged to provide informative and interactive materials that will help freshmen better understand the nature and purpose of their organization.

3.1.3. All booth decorations, displays, and materials must be appropriate, respectful, and consistent with the values and policies of the Ateneo de Zamboanga University.

3.2. Sale of Merchandise and Products

3.2.1. The sale of merchandise, food, beverages, or any other commercial products shall not be permitted during the DIA DE COLORES 2026.

3.3. Booth Engagement

3.3.1. Participating organizations are encouraged to create a welcoming, interactive, and informative booth experience for freshmen.

3.3.2. Organizations may conduct booth activities such as games, demonstrations, exhibits, photo opportunities, and informational presentations, provided that these activities remain within the allotted booth space and do not disrupt neighboring booths.

3.3.3. Representatives shall ensure that all interactions with students are respectful, inclusive, and free from any form of discrimination, harassment, intimidation, or coercion.

3.3.4. Organizations are encouraged to focus on sharing their mission, programs, experiences, and contributions to the university rather than soliciting membership.

3.3.5. The distribution of flyers, brochures, stickers, and similar promotional materials shall be permitted, provided that they comply with the university policies and are relevant to the purpose of the event.

4. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

4.1. The sale of merchandise, food, beverages, or any other commercial products shall be strictly prohibited. Organizations found engaging in any form of selling during the event shall be disqualified and required to remove their booths immediately. They shall likewise be subject to the appropriate sanctions imposed by the Organizing Committee and the Office of Student Affairs.

4.2. Activities that obstruct walkways, create excessive noise, or disrupt neighboring booths or official event programs shall not be permitted.

4.3. Booth displays or promotional materials that are offensive, discriminatory, defamatory, or inconsistent with the values and policies of the Ateneo de Zamboanga University shall be prohibited.

4.4. Organizations shall not damage University property or leave their assigned booth area unclean after the event.

5. PROGRAM PROVISIONS

5.1. Official Program of the COA-Z: DIA DE COLORES 2026 shall be conducted on the Opening Day (August 3, 2026) and the Closing Day (August 6, 2026) at the BC Quadrangle Field, during the University's designated Activity Hours from 3:30PM to 5:00PM.

5.1.2. All participating organizations shall ensure the attendance of a maximum of three (3) Officers and Members, or Representatives during the Opening Program.
